

6516208366.txt

Satellite radio offers me the great quality and continuous weather and traffic coverage that make getting around in a metropolitan area easier. I hate waiting for the FM stations to get around to the brief traffic reports that they do on-air and XM offers a way to connect instantly with updated traffic and weather conditions. Please don't put the brakes on a great way for people to keep informed.....